Rumpl's Commitments

Rumpl is a proud B Corp and certified carbon neutral through The Change Climate Project. We source environmentally responsible materials and offset 100% of our carbon emissions each year. To date, we have donated more than one million dollars to causes and organizations focused on conservation and access to the outdoors.

Rumpl proudly manufactures all of our blankets (and most of our other products) from materials developed with 100% post-consumer recycled content from discarded plastic bottles. To date, we've diverted more than 80 million plastic bottles into our products, but Rumpl is just one solution to single-use pollution.
